

The industry's #1 source for ASML repair & rebuild services.

Since 2009 EOTS has provides parts & service to 75+ Fabs worldwide. We are committed to providing unparalleled service, comprehensive rebuilds, and the exclusive ability to qualify parts in ASML Steppers & Scanners.

Part of our success can also be attributed to our knowledgeable staff which includes Sr. engineers specializing in 2500 & 5000 series steppers, as well as the PAS5500 Steppers & Scanners. So, we at EOTS are pleased to announce the addition of Bill Jones to the team.

Bill worked in the semiconductor industry for 35 years, with 20+ years of direct experience with ASML equipment as a Staff Equipment Engineer at both National Semiconductor Corporation (NSC) & Texas Instruments (TI), Bill will provide EOTS an additional layer of expertise along with a perspective from the factory floor.

Bill will work in the capacity of a Regional Sales Manager on the East Coast, providing current and future customers with a primary sales contact for parts, services and customer relations.

Thanks to our customers for your continued support. We hope you find this as a valuable resource, and we look forward to growing strong relationships for the future.
